Pity Party at Duke's Original Roadhouse helps give misunderstood breed a good name

Thursday, 23 September 2010

Pity Party at Duke's helps give misunderstood breed a good name

On Thursday, September 30, Duke's Original Roadhouse will open its patio to a breed that is often feared and misunderstood: the Pit Bull. From 5-7pm, Duke's invites the community to bring their pit bulls and dogs of any breed to their patio for a "Pity Party," which is sponsored by Operation Kindness, the oldest and largest no-kill shelter in the DFW area.

Guests will receive 20% of their entire food order and are invited to enter one of dozens of raffles for great prizes. Attending the event will be the lovely ladies of Pinups for Pitbulls, which works to educate the public about the history and temperament of the American Pit Bull Terrier and Bully Breeds, to raise awareness about Breed Specific Legislation and Breed-Specific abuse, and to raise funds for bully-breed-friendly rescues and dogs in need.

Duke's Original Roadhouse is located at 4180 Belt Line Rd, Addison, TX 75001. Click here for a map.

The mission of Operation Kindness is to provide quality care for homeless or unwanted cats and dogs in a compassionate, no-kill environment until they are adopted into responsible, loving homes, and to be a leader in our community in promoting humane values through education and awareness.